Join us to discuss memory, iconicity, and postmemory of the Asia-Pacific war with Professor Sabine Frühstück (East Asian studies, UCSB)

Readings for Session 5 (#2 is optional)

Under the auspices of the Comparative Literature Program and the Graduate Center for Literary Research, our Memory Studies Reading Group bridges literary, cultural, and historical analysis of memory as an activity; in addition to examining the nature of memory itself, we seek to investigate the relationships between history and memory, past and present, testimony and witnessing, ethics and politics, being and time, digital and global as well as individual and collective memory.
